FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Treasurer-Elect Ted Lauzen Announces the Deputy State Treasurer, his Transition Advisors, and the OST Job Application Process

Wilmington, DE - Ted Lauzen won all three counties and the city of Wilmington during the 2026 General Election for Delaware State Treasurer. After the decisive victory, Lauzen announced his selection of Laura Wisniewski as the next Deputy State Treasurer, the formation of his Transition Advisory Team, and the process to apply for positions within the Office of State Treasurer ("OST").

"My top priority is building a team that can deliver on our promise to lead with care, compassion, and competence," said Treasurer-elect Ted Lauzen. "I'm excited to work closely with experienced leaders and dedicated public servants to build an office and a policy platform that supports our neighbors across the First State."

Laura Wisniewski Appointed as the Next Deputy State Treasurer

Laura Wisniewski brings more than a decade of impactful state government experience to the Office of State Treasurer. She has worked in the General Assembly, in the Office of the Lieutenant Governor, and at the Delaware Democratic Party.

"Laura has an exceptional understanding of Delaware state government and a proven record of thoughtful leadership, extra effort, and authentic empathy," said Treasurer-elect Ted Lauzen. "She will use her experience managing complex operations, working across government, and building strong relationships to help protect our state and care for our neighbors. I am proud to have her as a partner in this next chapter."

Lauzen Announces an Experienced Set of Transition Advisors

Treasurer-elect Lauzen and Laura Wisniewski will work closely with a group of Transition Advisors over the coming weeks to build an impactful team, identify policy priorities, and prepare the Office of the State Treasurer to serve constituents across the state.

Laura and I will work closely with our Transition Advisors to build an impactful team and identify policy priorities. Our team of advisors includes The Honorable Jack C. Markell, Rony Baltazar-Lopez, Marla Blunt, The Honorable Nicholas Brock, Esq., Joel Brown, The Honorable Jeff Bullock, Chelsea Clark, The Honorable Mitch Crane, Liza Druck Davis, Mike Eppehimer, The Honorable Charles "Bud" Freel, Bishop George Gibson, Palash Gupta, Tom McGonigle, Esq., The Honorable Tanner Polce, Sade Truiett, Daniel Walker, and Dr. Meghan Walls.

Lauzen Launches the OST Job Application Process

As part of the transition, Treasurer-elect Ted Lauzen has created a streamlined process to apply for a position within the Office of the State Treasurer. He is excited to build an aligned team with positive, hardworking, and solutions-oriented individuals who are passionate about public service and are committed to making a difference in the lives of all Delawareans.

“We have an opportunity to build a strong team that is focused on protecting long-term investments, expanding financial literacy and support programs, improving transparency and accountability, and ensuring that all Delaware families have the chance to build a brighter future,” said Treasurer-elect Ted Lauzen. “I encourage anyone who shares our commitment to public service to consider joining our team. We’re excited to work closely with you!”
